

Friday 3rd February

Paul Hand

An exceptionally talented versatile vocal guitarist and entertainer. He performs a range of the latest chart music together with timeless classics. His good looks and his cheeky chappy charm give a commanding stage presence you cannot help but warm to.

Saturday 4th February

Maggie May

Award-winning comedy vocalist, Maggie May makes a welcome return to the Cawood Park stage tonight. Maggie has the right brand of comedy and songs to please just about all of you tonight!

Friday 10th

Jade Adams

A performance that includes Pop, Jazz, Opera and everything in-between. With some very funny Yorkshire humour that endears her to all, from the minute she steps on to the stage!

Saturday 11th February

Cloud 29

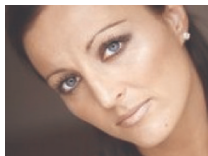

A superb girl and boy pop, cabaret, chart duo, who are certainly making a name for themselves. Featuring Rachael who is already established on the circuit in her own right on vocals and Ben on lead guitar. These guys never fail to deliver an excellent party pop show.

Friday 17th February

Michael Duble

There aren't many ladies who could resist the charms of Michael Buble, we can't bring the real thing to Cawood Park, but Michael Duble is the next best thing! Use it as your valentines treat and your lady will be very thankful believe me! Recognised as one of the finest tribute acts in the country today, the Michael Duble show is always evolving and incorporates new material as and when it's released by the man himself.

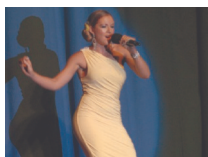

Saturday 18th February

Anita Ryan

Salford-born Anita Ryan undoubtedly has one of the biggest voices in the North West and is probably one the region's best kept secrets. She has a huge soulful talent that belies her 5ft 4in frame! Something her close friends have tried to describe in the past: "It's like watching the frame of Kylie belt out the tunes of Aretha."

Her show will take you down memory lane with Diva style classics from soul legends such as Millie Jackson, The Supremes, Jocelyn Brown, to dancing the night away with midtown's floor filling biggest hits.

Friday 24th February

Donna Ramsdale

An all singing all dancing ball of energy with 12 years professional experience and fantastic stage presence to boot.

Saturday 25th February

The Midnight Cats

A vibrant and enthusiastic north-west based 4-piece cover band with a female lead vocalist. They have a versatile set-list incorporating the best funk, soul, disco, pop, rock and party tunes from the 60's to the present day.

Friday 2nd March

John Andrews

John Andrews an exceptional male vocalist makes his first visit to Cawood Park tonight.

Saturday 3rd March

Tabu

Andrea and Tony are an outstanding duo! Tony is an accomplished guitarist with an excellent voice who has the ability to charm any audience. Andrea has not only the looks but also a superb voice with a dynamic personality.

Friday 9th March

Janie McKenzie

Fun, vivacious and talented, are three words which just about sum up Janie McKenzie. So come along tonight and dance yourself dizzy and enjoy a great night of entertainment.

Saturday 10th March

Ultimate Madness Band

March Madness time and who better to invite back to thrill us this weekend than the absolutely awesome Ultimate Madness Band. What a night we had with them last year and they have been top of the list for coming back! Don't miss this one - you will be really sorry if you do.

Friday 16th March

Karl Palmer

His unique vocal talent is leading him to become one of the best male vocalists on the circuit. His first visit to Cawood Park tonight is sure to be one to remember.

Saturday 17th March

Padraig

Padraig - great Irish music tonight - come along and join us to celebrate St. Patricks Day at Cawood Park and enjoy a glass or two of the "Black Stuff".

Friday 23rd March

Jodie Kate

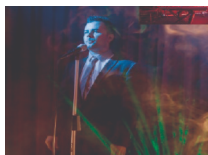

A beautiful talented young lady. Jodie has uniqueness about her, with a quirky little image and her fun sense of humour, she is a breath of fresh air. With her cheeky smile and twinkle in her eye there is no way you could not like this young lady, she just loves to entertain.

Saturday 24th March

Ricky K

An accomplished all round entertainer who has performed to audiences all over the world for many years. Ricky's' unique blend of visual comedy routines, and great vocals , together with a zany but loveable personality is what makes the Ricky K show a pleasure to watch. You'd be the daft one if you miss this one!

Friday 30th March

Jamie Ashton

Jamie Ashton - a superb young male vocalist, who makes a first visit to the Cawood Stage tonight. A great night is in store for you with this very talented young man.

Saturday 31st March

Personal FX

Lisa & Michelle are Personal FX, a fast moving but tastefully presented blend of vocal and dance numbers featuring a variety of costume changes, lead vocals from both girls and excellent harmonies. They are young, fresh, invigorating and talented, always great fun and extremely entertaining.